Weekly Picks From the Band

Book of the Week

Freakonomics: A Rogue Economist Explores the Hidden Side of Everything by Steven D. Levitt and Stephen J. Dubner is a collection of economic articles, and has been described as melding pop culture with economics. Levitt and Dubner argue that economics is, at root, the study of incentives.

Movie of the Week

Gone With The Wind is a 1939 American epic film adapted from Margaret Mitchell's 1936 novel of the same name. Produced by David O. Selznick and directed by Victor Fleming from a screenplay by Sidney Howard, the epic film, set in the American South in and around the time of the American Civil War, stars Clark Gable, Vivien Leigh, Leslie Howard, Olivia de Havilland, and Hattie McDaniel. It tells a story of the Civil War and its aftermath from a white Southern viewpoint.

Album of the Week

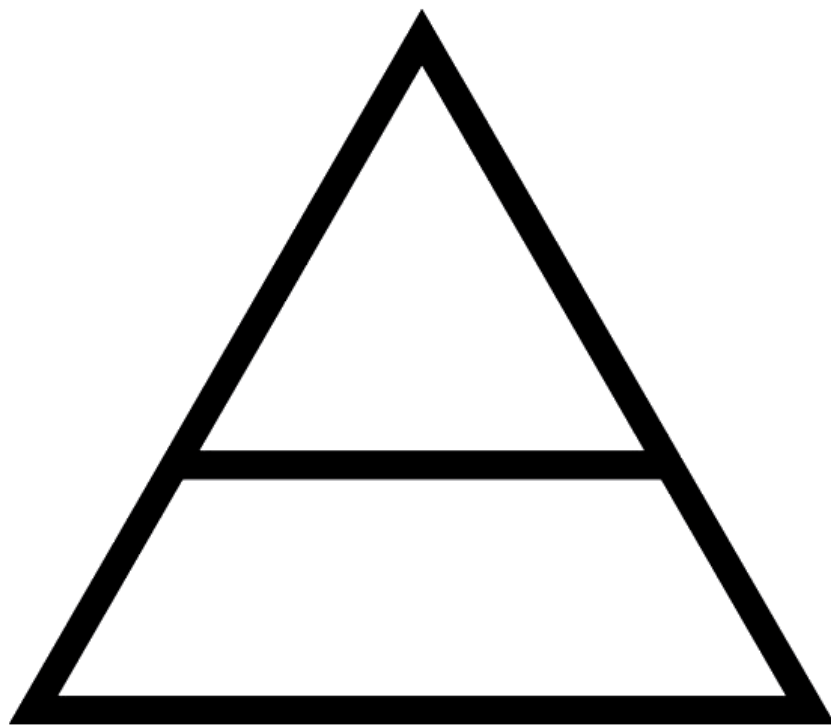

The White Stripes - De Stijl is the second studio album by the American garage rock band, and has since become a cult hit for White Stripes fans because it displays the early fusion of simplicity of the band's blues and punk fusion before the breakthrough success of White Blood Cells.

Website of the Week

The American Cancer Society is the official sponsor of birthdays. Please join ACS, Jared Leto and people from around the globe who are passionately committed to making a world with less cancer and more birthdays a reality!
